Grocery wholesale store

Name - Neha kumari
Roll -18074012
Department - Computer Science and Engineering
Client details
    Name - Santosh Kumar
    Mob.No -***
    Gmail - *@gmail.com.

About the client : My uncle is a businessman and he spends almost 2 to 3 hours daily at home doing his business works manually like storing the customer's data,calculating the items left in the stock at the end of the day and he verifies that "if the total money collected today is equal to the product sold or not".

Objective: Develop a web application which manages all the above stuff and he need not to spend this much time calculating everything manually.

Requirements of the client :
1. Purchase details
   a. How many products are required from which company.
   b. Cost price of products and total amount to be paid.
2. Company details
   a. Should contain the company's contact details and their address.
   b. How many different products a certain company supplies to the shop.
3. Customer details
   a. History of the products purchased by customers.

4. Product details

    a. Changes in the quantity of products in the stock should be noted and get notifications if any product is out of stock.

    b. Cost price,selling price and profit per item.

5. Extra expenses of the shop

    a. worker's salary

    b. Electricity bill

    c. Delivery charge

    d. Customer services.